

Item	Project/Program	Vote	Committee Contact	Motion for the SK 300th Steering Committee to approve....	Cost	Collaboration	Due
1	Branding: Logo and Tag Line	Y	Joanne Esposito	the revised logo design, and tag line - "Celebrating the Spirit of SK" or "Celebrating the Spirit of South Kingstown" where appropriate for all marketing and promotional materials for the Town's 300th Anniversary.	$650	Johnson Ma, freelance designer and Graphic Expressions	February
2	Rehabilitation of the Kingston Station as a railroad museum	Y	Murray Gates John Desmond	opening up dialog with RIDOT and the Town to restore the Kingston Railroad Signal Station as a possible railroad museum. At this time the committee cannot commit any time or funds towards this endeavor, however the committee would like to support research and grant funding to achieve this tourism opportunity for the Town and the State of Rhode Island.		RIDOT Town Officials Judge Indeglia	On going
3	Bike Path Signage to include Railroad history and Town-wide Signage	Y	John Desmond Murray Gates	endorsing Informational Signage proposed by Town staff - to approve the design, purchase and installation of interpretive signage for villages in celebration of the anniversary and moving forward on three NPRR informational panels on the William C. O'Neill Bike Path. Signage displaying the history of the Narragansett Pier Railroad. There is an option to be paid by the 300th budget or fundraising with involvement from Town staff - Brian Wagner (Planning Department) regarding the Town's comprehensive plan.	$1500/panel $4500	SK HDC Brian Wagner- Planning Department	Unveiling 2023
4	Public Art Design and Installation	Y	Ken Burke Joanne Esposito	sending out a Call for Art/RFQ to local artists for a public art piece (6-7ft sculpture, 100-300 ft mosaic, 200-300 ft mural) to be displayed in a high visibility area in the Town of South Kingstown in celebration of the Town's 300th Anniversary in 2023. COmmittee will be looking for local artists from Rhode Island with hope that we get local town applications. Application deadline April 10, 2022, project contingent on funding.	$75-$100K	Jen Ferry	Unveiling Summer-Fall 2023

5	SK Digital Timeline	Y	Joanne Esposito Murray Gates John Desmond Erica Luke URI Intern-Rachel Rinaldi	collaboration with the Town's Library Director, Laurel Clark, and her staff, on the creation of a digital timeline on the Town's history which could be posted on the Town's website.	$0	SK Library: Laurel Clark and Jessica Wilson	Fall 2022
6	Speaker Series	Y	John Desmond Murray Gates	a monthly speaker series on history topics to take place throughout 2023 at a cost not to exceed $1500. Schedule of speakers and topics to be presented later to the Committee, to include three informal talks by Brian Wallin on the history of the Narragansett Pier Railroad with potential rights to broadcast. And, to move forward on three presentations of artifacts of the Narragansett Pier Railroad by Erica Luke to accompany Brian Wallin's talks.	Mr. Wallin $150 each talk $450	Brian Wallin URI History Professors, others TBD	Jan-Dec 2023
7	6-Panel Trifold Brochure on the Narragansett Pier Railroad	Y	John Desmond Erica Luke	moving forward on designing and printing 500 copies of a six panel tri-fold brochure showing the history of the Narragansett Pier Railroad.	$150 for 500 copies $1200 design- unless a volunteer offers	Vistaprinting TBD	Summer 2023 or sooner
8	Banners, Flags, Billboard, Wooden Sign	Y	Joe Viele Joanne Esposito	ordering various size banners, flags and a wooden sign to promote the 300th anniversary. (One large street banner - across Downtown Main Street, (12) small banners along the sidewalk poles that represent all of the villages, flags for residents and businesses to hang, and a wooden kiosk to promote upcoming events and projects, location TBD.	Not to exceed $4000 with no installation. Purchase price for residents and businesses TBD	Arnold Lumber SKHS Carpentry Belmont Southern RI Chamber of Commerce	January 2023

9	Garden Boxes	Y	Brian Smith Joanne Esposito	pursuing collaboration with the SKHS Carpentry Classes to design and build wooden, square Garden Boxes (10" and 17" made of made of natural wood and possibly include the 300th graphic) for sale to residents and businesses during the anniversary. Proceeds will be given to the 300th anniversary budget or a SK non-profit. Garden Boxes will be sold by local retailers and non-profit organizations who agree to collaborate with the 300th Anniversary Steering Committee. Prices TBD by the committee.	Natural wood purchase (mahogany or cedar or PVC TBD	SKHS Carpentry Liberty Cedar Arnold Lumber	Roll out Fall 2022
10	Town-wide Bulb Plantings	Y	Tim Klatt Ginny Paul	purchasing blue and white flower bulbs to plant in strategic positions - in all the SK Villages in the fall of 2022 to bloom spring 2023 in celebration of the anniversary. Town can assist on getting good prices from their vendors.	Group price of $97.50/500 bulbs. So the range is 1000 for $195.00 to 5000 for $975.	Bulb provider TBD SK Villages	Fall 2022
11	Merchandise	Y	Ginny Paul	pursuing the purchase of promotional items (e.g. bells , bumper stickers, reusable bags, cell phone pockets) each imprinted with the 300th anniversary logo. Some of these items would be sold and some given away at the anniversary events to targeted groups (i.e. elderly, children)	TBD		January - Dec. 2023
12	Coin	Y	Ginny Paul	pursuing the design and purchase of a limited number of commemorative coins to sell for the anniversary year depending on demand. Coins to be two-sided (300th graphic on one side, and Town Seal on the other), 2" metal finish at approximately $10 each wholesale, includes a velvet bag and mold set up. Committee to decide on cost i.e. one for $20/two for $30. Each coin will be numbered of a set to make them more exclusive and #1 could be auctioned off. Proceeds will be given to the 300th anniversary budget or a SK non-profit.	Upfront $1800 for 100-300		January - Dec. 2023

13	Benches	Y	Theresa Murphy	the Town of South Kingstown offering the sale of commemorative benches from the Town's 300th Anniversary website through the currently in place program Friends of SK has. The Recreation Department's Friends of SK memorial bench program could customize the plaques with the 300th anniversary graphic for sales to residents and put them in an approved public location.	TBD paid by customers	Town staff	January - Dec. 2023
14	Preservation of Town records, documents	Y	Murray Gates	endorsing town record preservation (a member of the HDC has recently started the assessment of records to be preserved).	$0	HDC	On going
15	History Trolley/Bus Tours	Y	Murray Gates	a series of history tours/open houses to be held on 3 separate days, one day in each of Spring, Summer and Fall of 2023. Will try to increase passengers to justify the cost involved. May consider adding additional time based on interest. Could also potentially provide themed tours throughout the year specific to the time they are occurring. Program not to exceed $6K.	Not to exceed $6000		Spring-Fall 2023
15	Historical Resource Report	Y	None	endorsing the Historic District Committee's update to the Town's Report on Historic and Architectural Resources with the intent to publish in 2023 and in celebration of the Town's 300th Anniversary.	$0		by December 2023
q.	Historic Kingston Village well and George Washington marker restoration	Tabled	Susan Axelrod	landscape work – adding cobblestones around the perimeter to protect it, and changing some of the landscaping. Potentially restoring the George Washington sign to the well island.	TBD	Kingston Improvement Association	Unveiling June 2023
r.	Tree Plantings	Tabled		No motion
s.	Calendar	N	No Motion	Motion TBD
t.	Bricks	N	No Motion	Motion TBD			